TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some sort of tonic. IRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
THE BEST TONIC.
For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc., it HAS NO EQUAL, and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It enriches the blood, invigorates the system, restores appetite, aids digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. Dr. G. H. BICKLEY, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action exceeds all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it." Dr. W. N. WATERBURY, 1319 Third Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion." Genuine has above Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

BINSON RENOMINATED.

HEADS THE REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET IN OHIO.

Proceedings of the Convention in Session at Columbus—General Noyes Chosen Temporary Chairman of the Meeting The New State Central Committee.

GEN. J. S. ROBINSON.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 25.—The Ohio Republican convention could not have asked for a more glorious day. The Fourteenth regiment armory, where the convention was held, was beautifully decorated with flags and looped festoons of national colors. Pendant bouquets graced the hall which announced the place of each of the twenty-one districts delegations.

The convention was called to order at 10:35 by Chairman Lowry of the central committee, who introduced Rev. W. E. Moore, who made a brief but fervent prayer, asking for the divine guidance in the deliberation of the convention.

Mr. Lowry in some extended remarks congratulated the Republican party upon its prospects of success in the coming campaign. He prophesied that either James G. Blaine or John Sherman would lead the Republican forces in 1888. The applause was not only enthusiastic but it was impartially divided between the two names. Later on when the name of John Sherman was mentioned in the address it received an encore and so scored one point ahead of Mr. Blaine. The names of Governor Foraker and Lieutenant Governor Kennedy were also applauded. Chairman Lowry introduced the temporary officers, ex-Governor and Gen. Edward Noyes, of Hamilton, and Judge Miller, of Springfield.

Gen. Noyes met with the most flattering and cordial reception.

Gen. Noyes was in excellent form and his magnificent voice carried his words to the remotest portions of the immense hall. He was constantly interrupted by applause and cries of "Good!" "Good!"

During the delivery of Gen. Noyes' speech the scene of the convention was very inspiring. On the stage appear the faces of many distinguished Ohioans and on the very front of the platform is a large and elegant floral piece bearing the word which seems to have become the oriflame of Ohio Republicanism, "Foraker."

After the filling of the usual committees the convention took a recess until 1:30 p. m.

The assembling of the convention was delayed until 2 o'clock, when the exercises were commenced by the rendition of a number of campaign songs, by the Delaware Glee club, which invoked much enthusiasm.

Senator Lyon reported for the committee on credentials, the delegations all full and no contests.

The committee on permanent organization met and organized by the election of Elijah Little as chairman; Frank B. Gessner, of Cincinnati, secretary. After some discussion over the permanent chairman, in which Sherman, Foraker and Keifer's names were mentioned, it was decided on motion of F. B. Gessner to make Governor Foraker permanent chairman.

The name of Foraker for chairman evoked much applause.

The report of the committee on rules and order was read by Secretary Lanning.

When Governor Foraker advanced to the front the convention broke out in a storm of applause, which continued until the governor was forced to raise his hand in deprecation.

During his speech he was constantly interrupted by the enthusiastic plaudits of his admiring supporters.

Gen. Robinson was nominated for secretary of the state by acclamation, on motion of Capt. Keller, of Granville.

When the nomination for supreme judge was called for, Herman Gassing arose and moved the nomination of Judge Cox by acclamation, amidst a storm of "no," "no," "no." The motion was immediately withdrawn and M. B. Earnhart, of Miami, then placed in nomination Marshall J. Williams, of Fayette.

E. L. Taylor, of Franklin, nominated L. J. Critchfield, of Columbus.

Hon. Chester Townsend nominated the Hon. Judge Joseph Cox and paid the highest tribute to his candidate's mental and moral worth and making special reference to his record in the Hamilton election cases.

ble. The selection of the executive committee was deferred until the 31.

The committee on resolutions becoming discouraged at futile attempts to construct a platform referred the whole matter to a subcommittee, composed of Gen. Warren Keifer, of Springfield; J. C. Entekin, of Chillicothe; Judge Isaac Taylor, Mr. Lehman, of Elyria, and Judge J. H. Doyle, of Toledo, to report at 1:40 p. m.

PARSONS WRITES A LETTER.

One of the convicted Anarchists Replies to Grand Master Workman Powderly.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—A letter from A. R. Parsons, one of the convicted Anarchists, replying to certain recent utterances of T. V. Powderly, says: "Powderly is credited with saying: 'Anarchy is destruction of civil liberty. No honest workman can afford to identify himself with an organization which has for its object the destruction of life and property. What right has Mr. Powderly to define the meaning of Anarchy unless he knows what it is. In the name of tens of thousands of American workmen I solemnly protest. In the past ten years I have been active as a labor organizer and orator. I am a Knight of Labor. In that time from New York in the east to St. Louis and Kansas City in the west, and from St. Paul, Milwaukee and Detroit in the north, to Louisville and Baltimore in the south, I have addressed at least 500,000 workmen, and among all that number in these years I challenge Mr. Powderly to find a man who can truthfully say that I, as a Socialist or Anarchist have advocated or countenanced the destruction of life and property.' Whoever says so lies."

"The foundation principle of Socialism or Anarchy is the same as that of the Knights of Labor, viz: The abolition of the wages system and the substitution in its stead of the industrial system of universal co-operation, ending forever the conflict of classes and the inevitable antagonisms of the wage slave system. The assertion that we use and advise the use of force is gratuitous and untrue. But we have declared that the existing social order is founded on force and maintained by force, and we have and do still predict a social revolt of the working people against this force system. This is anarchy. Its teachings mean an end forever to brute force, the right of eternal peace and prosperity. The labor movement means the downfall of bosses, dictators and rulers; and a ruler or dictator is no more to be tolerated in the Knights of Labor than out of it, and is no more sufferable whether he is a Powderly or a Gould. Mr. Powderly can ill afford to malign his fellow laborers, and when he does so in the name of labor his act is doubly despicable."

JOHN T. RAYMOND ILL.

The Well-Known Actor Prostrated at His Residence in This City.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—John T. Raymond, the actor, is very ill at his residence in East Thirty-second street. It was at first feared by his friends that he had been attacked by a fatal malady, as he had been troubled for some time with his heart, but such is not the case. During the present season Mr. Raymond has been stopping at the West End hotel with his family. Last week he contracted a heavy cold, and on Saturday was prostrated. Sunday he felt better, and his friends who saw him that night thought he was on the road to recovery. He then busied himself with certain details relative to his coming season, his arrangements being to open in Utica Tuesday next.

A call had been sent out to the members of the company for rehearsal at Madison Square theater yesterday. Mr. Raymond was to be present, and he arrived in the city yesterday morning, took breakfast at Delmonico's and greeted many of his acquaintances cordially. No one noticed that he was suffering. As the time for rehearsal grew near he began to feel ill and fell in a sort of faint. Dr. Robinson, his physician, prescribed for him, and expressed the opinion that he would soon rally and be himself again. The rehearsal was postponed. Last evening Dr. Robinson, who had called a second time on his patient, spoke hopefully of his condition. Mr. Raymond rested easily. His friends think he will be able to be out again in a few days.

Business in the Kentucky Mountains.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 26.—Fulton French and Joe Eversole are rival merchants at Hazard, county seat of Perry, a mountain county. Some weeks ago their rivalry led to a murderous fight in which French and his friends were wounded and driven out. French at once began collecting a band with which he will move on Hazard and in turn drive out Eversole. He makes Mount Pleasant, about thirty miles away toward the Cumberland Gap, his headquarters, and has recruited seventy men of desperate fortune. These, armed with Winchester rifles, secured from Knoxville, are drilled every day. They are paid $2 to $2.50 a day and are fully supplied with ammunition. The roads approaching Mount Pleasant are picketed, some for ten miles, and not even a messenger for a physician is allowed to go into town at night. They have taken the prisoners from the jail and armed them, and given Jaifer Joe Kelly warning not to try to leave upon pain of death. Kelly is wanted as a witness at Pineville, but cannot make his escape. Eversole, surrounded by an equally desperate gang, is fortified at Hazard. A fierce and decisive conflict is imminent and an effort is being made to have the governor interfere at once.

Gas Explosion.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 26.—Two explosions of gas occurred at the Short Mountain colliery, at Lykens, which burned twenty men seriously. James B. Bateman, the foreman, was painfully injured. No deaths have yet occurred. The explosions were caused by lighting a lamp in the air hole.

The Steamer Francis Smith Released.

OWEN SOUND, Ont., Aug. 26.—The steamer Francis Smith which was seized by the American authorities at Mackinaw, has been released and has returned here. Her officers refuse to give any particulars, but it is reported that the steamer was released on $10,000 bond.

No Yellow Fever in Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 26.—Reports having been circulated outside of this state that yellow fever prevailed in Tampa, inquiries by the agent of the Associated Press here show that the report is absolutely false.

ALEXANDER REINSTATED.

THE REBELS AND THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OVERTHROWN.

The Leaders of the Conspiracy Arrested and a Deputation Sent in Search of the Dethroned Prince to Persuade Him to Return—Other Foreign News Items.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—Dispatches from Sofia state that the provisional government which had been formed to administer the affairs of Roumelia after the deposition of Prince Alexander, has been overthrown, and the minister of foreign affairs, M. Clement, the minister of finance, M. Zankoff, and M. Groueff, another member of the provisional government, have been arrested, and that the Karaveloff ministry which is in favor of Prince Alexander has been reinstated. A deputation, these dispatches further state, has been sent in search of the dethroned prince to persuade him to return to the palace, and resume the direction of the affairs of his country.

Gladstone's Three Weeks Vacation.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—Mr. Gladstone accompanied by one of his daughters and Lord Acton, started for Germany en route for Munich, where he intends to spend a vacation of three weeks. The weather was bright and clear. Among those who witnessed the departure of England's venerable statesman and bid the party Godspeed, were: Mrs. Gladstone and Mr. John Morley, the late chief secretary for Ireland, and a number of other distinguished persons. He was glad in a suit of grey and wore a felt hat. He carried himself with rather a jaunty air and appeared to be in the best of spirits, although a trifle pale. Mr. Gladstone was heartily cheered by the assemblage and waived farewell as the train bearing the party to Dover, at which point it will embark, drew out from the station.

The Prince to Be Returned.

BUCHAREST, Aug. 26.—The commander of the yacht having Prince Alexander on board as a prisoner, telegraphed from Reil, Russia, in Bessarabia, to Sofia, asking the provisional government for instructions concerning his royal prisoner. The commander received a reply ordering him to return with Prince Alexander to Sofia.

A Warehouse Fire.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 26.—A fire broke out in a number of warehouses, owned by J. D. Malladen, on Neptune street. The two top floors of the warehouses were completely burned out before the fire was subdued. The buildings are fully insured.

Lord Salisbury Called to London.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The government having received important dispatches during the night with regard to the Bulgarian imbroglio, have telegraphed Lord Salisbury to return at once to London.

Adding Territory.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The commander of the British corvette Diamond, has annexed the Kermadec Islands, in the Pacific ocean.

Movement of Russian Troops.

BUCHAREST, Aug. 26.—A movement of Russian troops toward Reil, Bessarabia, is reported.

THE FATHER INNOCENT.

No Clue Yet to the Guilty Man in the Franklin Tragedy.

FRANKLIN, O., Aug. 26.—The preliminary examination of Christian Helweger, charged with the murder of his little daughter Mary, was concluded before Mayor Rue in the opera house at this place, and resulted in the discharge of the prisoner, as he completely established his innocence. It was proven by Helweger's sister-in-law and his little son Johnny that the father had no opportunity to commit the deed, and their statements were clear and straightforward. The previous good character of the prisoner and his kindness to his family were proven by several.

Long before the defense rested, J. S. Miller, the prosecutor, requested that the defendant be dismissed, as, from the evidence, he had no doubt of his innocence. This announcement was received with applause from the citizens present, and the scene presented upon the meeting of Helweger and his wife and little son was particularly affecting. Everybody is pleased with the result, but the mystery surrounding the terrible tragedy of a month ago, when little Mary Helweger was brutally murdered, is no nearer solved than it was the day of the occurrence.

Stealing a Train.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—James Stevenson, of the geological survey at Washington, arrived here on the Pennsylvania railroad express. He says that when the train was passing Davis, Ind., about fifty miles from here, a shower of stones was thrown, smashing nearly every window on one side of the train, and causing great excitement among the passengers. One missile was thrown with such force as to pass in at one window and out on the opposite side of the car. Fortunately the passengers escaped serious injury. One lady was cut about the face by fragments of flying glass. No explanation of the affair is given, but it is supposed that the outrage was committed by malicious tramps.

Mr. Cutting's Address of Thanks.

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 26.—Cutting has issued an address to his fellow citizens of the United States, thanking them for their firmness in demanding his release. He also commends Secretary Bayard's action, but gives Consul Brigham the chief credit for ably conducting the negotiations, which led to the abridgement of his confinement. Mr. Cutting embraces the opportunity to set forth at considerable length his views upon the duty of the United States in regard to the protection of its citizens in other countries.

Disastrous Explosions.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 26.—Two explosions of gas occurred at the Short Mountain colliery at Lykens, which burned twenty men seriously. James B. Bateman, the foreman, was painfully injured. No deaths have yet occurred. The explosions were caused by lighting a lamp in the air hole.

STREET CAR RIOT.

A Mob Smashes Things Generally on the Broadway Line.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—At 10:30 a. m. car No. 158, in charge of Driver Wickless and Conductor Smith, rolled out of the depot and started on its trip down town. A yell arose from the loungers on Seventh avenue, and men began to pour in from the side streets and the neighboring saloons until in a few moments a mob of excited men filled the wide avenue and started after the car.

The car went along for about six blocks easily, with an occasional stone, until the Broadway switch was reached. Here an effort was made to derail the car by placing a piece of wood in the switch. This proved unsuccessful, but a few moments later a collision occurred at Forty-second street with a car of the Forty-second street and Boulevard line.

The two cars came together with great force, but no injury beyond a shaking up occurred. The mob hooted and jeered at the driver, and several stones were thrown against the car. The police charged the crowd and dispersed them for a moment. In the attempt to get away from the police the glass door of a large wine store was smashed.

Further on the mob again appeared and overturned a large dry goods truck on the track. This the police lifted by main strength from the track and the car proceeded on its way amid the yells and derisive hootings of the crowd. Stones and bricks were again thrown against the car, smashing a ventilator.

At the junction of Sixth avenue and Broadway and Thirty-third streets another delay was caused by a Sixth avenue car crossing in front of the Broadway car, filled with men and women. Stones were again thrown, one striking the Sixth avenue car. The women screamed affrighted and tried to get out of the car.

At this moment Williams, with a large squad of police, appeared and clubbed the crowd right and left. They were driven into the side streets. They did not again collect, and the car proceeded on its way unmolested. It reached Bowling Green at 11:30 a. m., and then started on the return trip to the stables.

In the meantime other cars were started and made regular trips. At noon six cars were running. More trouble is feared this afternoon and evening, as a large number of new drivers are expected to arrive from Philadelphia this afternoon.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR INVESTIGATIONS.

General Commissioner Carlton Inquiring Into the Chicago Assemblies.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—General Commissioner Carlton of the Knights of Labor is pursuing his investigations into the affairs of the Chicago assemblies. He is in constant consultation with committees, and has especial reference to the expulsion of two assemblies which affiliate with the Central Labor union, until recently dominated by Spies, Parsons, and others. Mr. Carlton says that all the published reports of the investigation have been mere guesswork, and are far away from the facts. The investigations are not regarded as of general interest to the public, and are part of the secret business of the organization. He states that Mr. Powderly voiced the sentiment of the organization when he declared that Socialists, and Anarchists especially, receive no sympathy from, or affiliation with, the knights. It is the purpose of the organization, he says, to uphold the laws, and he regards the verdict in the Anarchist case as a just and deserved punishment for violation of laws well known to the violators.

A LADY SWIMMER.

Miss Jeannette Larke Swims the Niagara River Below the Falls.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Miss Jeannette Larke, a handsome young lady of Youngstown, swam the Niagara river below the rapids, near her home. She was accompanied by Wm. Wilkinson, and the distance was about a mile and a half. Miss Larke reached the Canada shore with very little exhaustion, and seemed perfectly fresh, although her companion was very tired. This is the first time a lady has accomplished the feat of swimming the river at this point.

Policeman Kendall who swam the 'whirlpool' on Sunday, was seen in Buffalo. He is going to occupy Mrs. Capt. Webb's reception rooms at Brundage's elevator, on the Canada side, for the next week. Kendall says he has refused several offers from dime museum proprietors, and that he did not go through for exhibition purposes.

Michigan Republicans.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Aug. 26.—The Republican state convention is in session here. The city is full of delegates and there are hosts of candidates. There are prospects of a bitter fight for the head of the ticket. The candidates for governor are Minor S. Newell, now commissioner of the land office; Cyrus G. Luce, and George A. Smith, a farmer, of Hillsdale. All have good backing. The prospects are favorable to Luce. No names are prominently mentioned for lieutenant governor. There are four candidates for secretary of state. Gill Osmond, of Detroit, private secretary of Governor Alger, seems to have the pole, with William M. Kilpatrick second. For auditor Gen. H. H. Apple and William Naaburen, of Lansing, are being boomed, with the chances favorable for the latter. Moses Taggart, of this city, will be renominated for attorney general. Roscoe B. Dix, of Berrien, is the only candidate for land commissioner. The candidates for state treasurer are George Starr, George Kempf and George A. Malts.

A Forger Gives Himself Up.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 26.—A young man giving the name of John Corcoran, called at police headquarters and informed Superintendent Phillips that he was wanted in Shelbyville, Ind., for forgery to the extent of $300, and desired to give himself up. He was detained and a telegram was sent to Chief of Police Bassett, of Shelbyville. That official replied that he would come for Corcoran on the next train. The young man was penniless, and said he was forced to give himself up by starvation. He had not eaten anything since last Saturday.

Demand for New Postal Envelopes.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 26.—There was a great demand at the postoffice for the new postal envelopes. By night nearly 1,000 of them had been sold, most of them singly. They were bought largely by persons who wished to send them off to friends as curiosities.
